To perspective members:

Good cause for disapproval by the Association (through the Board of Directors or the Review Committee) of any prospective transfer of a membership to potential purchaser(s) shall include, but not be limited to, the following violating behaviors: (a) the applicant(s) seeking approval have failed to submit a Membership Application form, as promulgated by the Board of Directors or the Review Committee, or have submitted an incomplete Membership Application form; (b) the applicant(s) seeking approval have materially misrepresented or falsified any fact or information upon the Membership Application form, or otherwise in the review process, such as misidentifying the persons who shall occupy the unit (all occupants must be listed and their occupancies reviewed and approved); (c) the applicant(s) seeking approval, or the seller on their behalf, have failed to pay any transfer fee levied by the Association; (d) the applicant(s) seeking approval have failed to make an appointment for, or to attend Review Committee screening, or (e) the applicant(s) seeking approval have not agreed to, or failed to provide, or refused to release any backer ound investigation or reports that may be required by the Association in its review of the prospective transfer. Moreover, after Association initial approval of a membership transfer. Association authority to subsequently disapprove said transfer shall remain available to the Association upon any discovery of good cause for disapproval; in this regard, the Association can take advantage of all available legal and equitable remedies to reverse the transfer including, but not limited to, transferring the membership back to the Association, ejecting, evicting, or otherwise dispossessing the occupants from the unit bringing legal or equitable action against the occupants for all Association costs in such actions, or any other actions available to reverse the transfer.

I have read and understand the above policy set forth by the MICHA Board of Directors
